The Find Your Voice Executive Coaching Package trains clients in key skills for performing with confidence in high stake and pressured situations. The results of this training are contingent on the skills being put into practice and so vital ongoing support and training is provided as part of the program.

The format of the Find Your Voice Executive Coaching Package is in 2 phases with the option to engage in further coaching sessions on either an ongoing or ad hoc basis as deemed needed by the individual.

Phase 1

6 face to face sessions of an hour, preferably in person.

Sessions will cover 5 core modules introducing key skills for performing with confidence in high stakes and pressured situations with a sixth session to review and consolidate the skills.

Phase 2

3 follow up calls of up to 30 minutes to offer support of the practice of the skills learned on 3 consecutive months following the conclusion of Phase 1.

Optional follow up coaching sessions
